Hongkong, July 10th, 1893.

—The meeting, if organized this year, becomes an annual one, when champion-would be decided and a seat given to his/er collections—Industrial exhibits throughout the East.

THE "HANKOW" CASE.

—Editor of the "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

—Master Wainman's letter appearing in issue of the 14th instant re the judicial farce acted in the Hankow river steamer case, to have hit the nail on the head, and I concur with his arguments—more especially regarding the best evidence afforded in the Hankow steam launch case in the jurisdiction yesterday.

—An even-minded and disinterested person in the Hankow steam launch case of yesterday was practically on a tour with the British consular officials, defendants offering evidence in the steam launch case on board the Hankow steam launch.
